

Job's Response - Job 26-31

Job Rebukes Bildad (26:1-4)	Greatness of God (26:5-14)	Job's Righteousness (27:1-6)	The Godless (27:7-23)
You are so helpful to the weak (2) You have certainly given great wisdom and insight (3) Who do you think you have helped (4)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- death has no power before God (5-6)</li> <li>- He stretches out the earth (7)</li> <li>- He causes the waters to be held in the cloud (8)</li> <li>- He obscures the moon with His cloud (9)</li> <li>- Inscribes a circle on the surface of the waters (10)</li> <li>- His power over the mountains, the seas, and anything that can create havoc in them (11-13)</li> <li>- These are just a glimpse of who God is and what He does (14)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- no matter what God has done I will not speak unjustly (2-4)</li> <li>- You, my friends, are wrong about me - I will not give up my integrity (5)</li> <li>- Kept his righteousness - will not let it go - my heart will not rebuke me any of my days (6)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- what is the hope of the godless at the end of his life (7-8)</li> <li>- Will God hear him and will He have pity on him (9-12)</li> <li>- They are destined for the sword (13-14)</li> <li>- Those who are left behind will suffer (14-15)</li> <li>- His wealth will be divided up (16-19)</li> <li>- Terrors overtake him (20-23)</li> </ul>

Earth's Treasures Found (28:1-11)	Where is Wisdom Found? (28:12-28)	Job - My Past was Good (29)	Job - But Now . . . (30)	Job's Integrity (31)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- silver is mined (1)</li> <li>- Gold is refined</li> <li>- Iron is in dust (2)</li> <li>- Copper is smelted</li> <li>- Man seeks treasures (3-4)</li> <li>- Food comes from the earth (5)</li> <li>- Rocks contain sapphires (6)</li> <li>- Gold is in the dust</li> <li>- Animals don't care (7-8)</li> <li>- Man takes great pains to dig these treasures from the earth (9-11)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- man doesn't search for wisdom - he doesn't understand its value (12-13)</li> <li>- Wisdom is not in the depths (14)</li> <li>- It can't be bought (15-19)</li> <li>- Where does it come from? (20-22)</li> <li>- God knows wisdom's place (23-24)</li> <li>- God has weighed the air, measures the waters, limits the rain, made the course for the thunderbolt (25-27)</li> <li>- The fear of the Lord - that is wisdom - depart from evil - understanding (28)</li> </ul>
