

Proverbs

Proper Conduct - 19-29
Chapter 22	Chapter 23	Chapter 24
- desire a good name (1) - The prudent hides himself from evil (3) - Train our children in the way of righteousness (6) - Borrower becomes the lenders slave (7, 26-27) - Drive out the scoffer (10) - Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child (15) - Trust in the Lord (17-21) - Stay away from hot tempered men (24-25)	- 1-3 - think carefully about your actions (Daniel 1) - 4-5 - don't try to accumulate wealth - 6-8 - avoid those who are selfish and greedy - their desire is their own gain and they don't care about you - 9 - don't waste your time trying to reason with a fool - 10-12 - don't take advantage to those who are less fortunate - God will protect against you - 13-14 - importance of proper discipline for our children - 15-16 - children living what is right will bring joy to their parents - 17-21 - watch the company you keep - to spend time with drinkers and gluttons will lead to ruin - 22-23 - always be seeking truth in any matter that confronts you - 24-25 - pursue wisdom and righteousness with our lives - 26-28 - warnings of adultery - 29-35 - warnings against alcohol use	- 1-2 - evil men's minds devise violence - 3-4 - wisdom, understanding, knowledge build our lives - 5-6 - wisdom brings strength and a multitude of counselors brings victory - 7-10 - the schemer devises foolishness and the sluggards strength is limited - 11-12 - God judges the intentions of the heart and will reward accordingly - 13-14 - wisdom is like honey to the soul - your future is secure - 15-16 - the wise may stumble but they get up and continue - 17-18 - don't rejoice when your enemy falls - 19-20 - don't fret about evildoers - 21-22 - fearing the Lord is the solid foundation to life - 23-27 - need to live rightly and wisely with our time - 28-29 - live truthfully and live in trust in God - 30-34 - don't live as a sluggard or one lacking sense