

Covid-19 and the End Times Is It Fulfillment of Revelation?

Headline News Stories - and some Bizarre Claims coming from “Christians”

Coronavirus death toll rises: Is COVID-19 fulfilling Bible prophecies of Revelation?

CORONAVIRUS infections have killed more than 7,000 lives since December, amid widespread fears the COVID-19 pandemic was foretold by the Bible's Book of Revelation.

On Wednesday, March 11, the Director-General of the World Health Organization (WHO) said infections have increased 13-fold outside of mainland China.

The rapid spread of the deadly pathogen has led many to speculate its mysterious origin.

While some conspiracy theorists have said the virus was accidentally released by a Chinese laboratory, others have said the virus was foretold by the 16th century mystic Nostradamus.

Hardline Christians have also taken to social media to share bizarre claims the coronavirus is linked to passages in the Bible.

Richard Sole posted on Twitter: “Widespread pestilence and plague under Trump.

“Is coronavirus the prophesied 'Plague' in the Book of Revelation?”

Ka Malaika said: “What if Corona Virus is the beast that was talked about in the Book of Revelation”

Another Twitter user said: “Pestilence is in the Book of Revelation, and y'all supposed about the Coronavirus because????? ... HES COMING BACK”

Lorenzo Flavian also said: “The Coronavirus has just become biblical. It's beginning to resemble bible verses from the book of revelation.

“I’m not a religious guy but I study everything.”

Where are the political stomach prophets to tell us more about the pandemic CORONA VIRUS and its impact on humankind on this earth?

Why have they backed off from the discussions and have allowed the media and medical doctors to reach the platform to disseminate the issues?

Where is God in the midst of this pandemic explosion?

Yes, the modern-day Ghanaian stomach and political prophets cannot wade into the Corona Virus pandemic discussion because they lack the scriptural knowledge about it.

Ghana's president, Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo has done well to call the country's high-point religious leaders to offer prayers for God's intervention in Ghana's situation.

Coronavirus in the Bible: Bizarre claim COVID-19 is 'fulfilling Bible prophecy' of plague

CORONAVIRUS was predicted by the Bible in ancient prophecies of plague and pestilence, some Christian evangelists have bizarrely claimed.

Doomsday preachers and evangelists who follow literal interpretations of the Bible have also used the pandemic to spread claims of biblical prophecy.

Bryan McDonald of The Trumpet said: "From the moment the coronavirus crisis began, The Trumpet has explained that this disease is fulfilling Bible prophecy.

"Many biblical passages, such as Revelation 6 and Matthew 24, forecast disease pandemics in the time just before Jesus Christ returns.

"The truth is, as Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry recently warned, we can 'expect diseases like this new Wuhan coronavirus to get worse, and to eventually spread like medieval pandemics and kill millions of people'."

In the summer of 2008, an elderly psychic who claimed she started receiving premonitions at age 5 published a book that contained an ominous prediction.

“In around 2020, a severe pneumonia-like illness will spread throughout the globe, attacking the lungs and the bronchial tubes and resisting all known treatments,” it said. “Almost more baffling than the illness itself will be the fact that it will suddenly vanish as quickly as it arrived, attack again ten years later, and then disappear completely.”

The prediction faded from public memory and the book’s author, Sylvia Browne, died in 2013. But the coronavirus pandemic has brought new attention to Browne’s book, “End of Days: Predictions and Prophecies About the End of the World.” It’s shot up to No. 2 on Amazon’s nonfiction chart, and physical copies are now selling for hundreds of dollars.

Government and public health officials have issued all sorts of guidelines to help people protect themselves against the spread of Covid-19. But there’s another contagion that experts seem helpless to stop: The plague of prophets warning that the coronavirus is a sign we’re at the “end of days.”

Missouri Sues Televangelist Jim Bakker For Selling Fake Coronavirus Cure

$80 for 4 oz bottle

Televangelist Jim Bakker held up a blue and silver bottle, gazing intently at the label, as he questioned the woman sitting next to him.

"This influenza that is now circling the globe," Bakker said on the Feb. 12 broadcast of The Jim Bakker Show, "you're saying that Silver Solution would be effective."

His guest, the so-called "natural health expert" Sherrill Sellman, falsely implied that the liquid would likely be effective. The coronavirus impacting more than 120,000 people worldwide does not yet have a known treatment or cure.

Televangelist Jim Bakker, shown here in 2018, faces a legal challenge from the state of Missouri for selling a false remedy against the coronavirus. The COVID-19 disease currently has no cure.

Speaking of Bizarre!
 Date Setters - with all the “correct” Biblical? Reasons
 Are Christians Bizarre? - does the world have reason to believe that of us?

1988	Edgar C. Whisenant	Published a book, 88 Reasons Why The Rapture Will Be in 1988 . When this didn't happen he wrote a follow-up book entitled "89 Reasons Why the Rapture will be in 1989."
6 September 1994	Harold Camping	Camping, general manager of Family Radio and Bible teacher, published a book, 1994? , a prediction that Christ's return was likely pointing to 1994.
1999–2009	Jerry Falwell	Fundamentalist preacher who predicted in 1999 that the Second Coming would probably be within 10 years. ^[26]
2000	Ed Dobson	This pastor predicted the end would occur in his book The End: Why Jesus Could Return by A.D. 2000 . ^[27]
	Timothy Dwight IV	This President of Yale University foresaw Christ's Millennium starting by 2000. ^{[2],81}
	Edgar Cayce	This psychic predicted the Second Coming would occur this year. ^[28]
	Isaac Newton	Newton predicted that Christ's Millennium would begin in the year 2000 in his book Observations upon the Prophecies of Daniel, and the Apocalypse of St. John . ^{[29]:96}
6 April 2000	James Harmston	The leader of the True and Living Church of Jesus Christ of Saints of the Last Days predicted the Second Coming of Christ would occur on this day.
21 March 2011 21 October 2011	Harold Camping	Main article: 2011 end times prediction Camping claimed that the rapture would be on 21 May 2011 followed by the end of the world on 21 October of the same year. Camping wrote "Adam when?" and claimed the Biblical calendar meshes with the secular and is accurate from 11,013 BC–AD 2011. ^[30]
29 September 2011 27 May 2012 18 May 2013	Ronald Weinland	Weinland predicted Jesus would return on 29 September 2011. ^{[31][32][33]} When his prediction failed to come true, he moved the date of Jesus' return to 27 May 2012. ^[34] When that prediction failed, he then moved the date to 18 May 2013, claiming that "a day with God is as a year," giving himself another year for his prophecy to take place. Weinland was convicted of tax evasion in 2012 and sentenced to 3 1/2 years in federal prison.
2012	Jack Van Impe	Televangelist who has, over the years, predicted many specific years and dates for the Second Coming of Jesus, but has continued to move his prediction later. Many of these dates have already passed, and he recently pointed to 2012 as a possible date for the second coming. Van Impe no longer claims to know the exact date of the Second Coming, but quotes verses which imply that mankind should know when the Second Coming is near.
28 September 2015	Mark Biltz	Starting in 2008, Mark Biltz began teaching that Christ's return would correspond with the 28 September 2015 lunar eclipse . His idea, known as the Blood Moon Prophecy , attracted attention from pastor John Hagee (who stopped short of claiming Christ would return on that precise date) and mainstream media such as USA Today . ^[35]
9 June 2019	Ronald Weinland	Weinland believed that Jesus Christ would return on Pentecost in 2019. ^[36]

Predicted date	Claimant	Description
500	Hippolytus of Rome , Sextus Julius Africanus , Irenaeus	These three Christian theologians predicted Jesus would return in the year 500. One prediction was based on the dimensions of Noah's ark . ^{[1]:35}
6 April 793	Beatus of Liébana	The Spanish monk prophesied the second coming of Christ and the end of the world would take place that day to a crowd of people.
1 January 1000	Pope Sylvester II	The Millennium Apocalypse at the end of the 1st millennium . Various Christian clerics predicted the end of the world on this date. Following the failure of the 1 January 1000 prediction, some theorists proposed that the end would occur 1000 years after Jesus' death (1033), instead of his birth.
1260	Joachim of Fiore	The Italian mystic determined that the Millennium would begin between 1200 and 1260. ^{[2]:48}
1370	Jean de Roquetaillade	The Antichrist was predicted to come in 1366 and the Millennium would begin in 1368 or 1370. ^{[3]:55}
1504	Sandro Botticelli	Believed he was living during the time of the Tribulation, and that the Millennium would begin in three and a half years from 1500. ^{[3]:60}
20 February 1524	Johannes Stöffler	A planetary alignment in Pisces was seen by this astrologer as a sign of the Millennium . ^{[4]:236–237}
1524–1526	Thomas Müntzer	1525 would mark the beginning of the Millennium , according to this Anabaptist. ^[1]
19 October 1533	Michael Stifel	This mathematician calculated that the Judgement Day would begin at 8:00 AM on this day.
1673	William Aspinwall	This Fifth Monarchist claimed the Millennium would begin by this year. ^{[5]:209}
1694	Johann Jacob Zimmermann	Believed that Jesus would return and the world would end this year. ^{[6]:19–20}
	John Mason and Johann Heinrich Alsted	Both claimed the Millennium would begin by this year. ^{[2]:66:72}
1700	Henry Archer	Archer counted 1335 years from the end of the reign of Julian the Apostate (the dates of whose reign he was uncertain), taking the 1335 days in Daniel 12:12 as years . ^[7]
1757	Emanuel Swedenborg	In 1758 Swedenborg reported that the Last Judgment had taken place in the spiritual world in 1757, the year before his report (so he presented this not as a prediction but as an eye-witness account). ^{[8][9]} This was one of many events recounted in his works resulting from visions of Jesus Christ returned. He tells of almost daily interaction with Christ over the course of almost 30 years. His return is not in the flesh, but in His Holy Spirit. "Neither shall they say see here or see there, for behold, the kingdom of God is within you" (Luke 17:20). ^[10]
1793–1795	Richard Brothers	This retired sailor stated the Millennium would begin between 1793 and 1795. He was eventually committed to an insane asylum. ^[11]
25 December 1814	Joanna Southcott	This 64-year-old self-described prophet claimed she was pregnant with the Christ child, and that he would be born on Christmas Day, 1814. She died on the day of her prediction, and an autopsy proved that she was not pregnant. ^{[12]:109}
15 September 1829 Sep 15	George Rapp	Founder and leader of the Harmony Society , predicted that on 15 September 1829, the three and one half years of the Sun Woman would end and Christ would begin his reign on Earth. ^[13] Dissension grew when Rapp's predictions went unfulfilled. In March 1832, a third of the group left and some began following a man named Bernhard Müller who claimed to be the Lion of Judah . Nevertheless, most of the group stayed and Rapp continued to lead them until he died on 7 August 1847. His last words to his followers were, "If I did not so fully believe, that the Lord has designated me to place our society before His presence in the land of Canaan, I would consider this my last." ^[14]
1836	John Wesley	Wesley, the founder of the Methodist Church , foresaw the Millennium beginning this year. He wrote that Revelation 12:14 referred to the years 1058–1836, "when Christ should come". ^{[1]:37[11]:269}

Future predictions [\[edit \]](#)

Predicted date	Claimant	Notes
2020	Jeane Dixon	The alleged psychic claimed that Armageddon would take place in 2020 and Jesus would return to defeat the unholy Trinity of the Antichrist , Satan and the False prophet between 2020 and 2037. ^[37]
2021	F. Kenton "Doc" Beshore	Beshore bases his prediction on the prior suggestion that Jesus could return in 1988, i.e., within one Biblical generation (40 years) of the founding of Israel in 1948. Beshore argues that the prediction was correct, but that the definition of a Biblical generation was incorrect and was actually 70–80 years, placing the Second Coming of Jesus between 2018 and 2028 and the Rapture by 2021 at the latest. ^[38]
2024	Unsealed World News	A number of Christians believe that the Revelation 12 Sign (as popularised by the site Unsealed.org) marks the year of the Rapture, and that after a seven-year tribulation period the Second Coming of Jesus would occur. This seven-year span would also be marked by the 2017 Great American Eclipse and the subsequent 2024 American Eclipse .
2025	Alice A. Bailey	In January 1946, the New Age Theosophical guru prophesied that Christ would return "sometime after AD 2025" ^{[39]:530} (Theosophists identify "Christ" as being identical to a being they call Maitreya) to inaugurate the Age of Aquarius ; thus, this event will be, according to Bailey, the New Age equivalent of the Christian concept of the Second Coming). ^[40] Alice A. Bailey stated that St. Germain is the manager of the executive council of the Christ (Like C.W. Leadbeater , Alice A. Bailey refers to St. Germain as the Master Rakoczi or the Master R. in her books); ^{[39]:508} thus, according to Alice A. Bailey, St. Germain's primary task is to prepare the way for the Second Coming.
2029	Jakob Lorber	Austrian musician who wrote during 24 years a vast number of works later called the New Revelation, claimed to be received through an inner voice which belonged to Jesus Christ , offered many detailed prophecies concerning the unfolding of the Second Coming, pointing to a time before the passing of 2,000 years ^{[41][42][43][44][45][46][47][48][49][50]} after the death of Christ on the cross (note that most scholars assume a date of birth of Jesus between 6 BC and 4 BC).
By 2057	Frank J. Tipler	In 1994, the physicist and intelligent design advocate Frank J. Tipler published a book called The Physics of Immortality , in which he claimed to scientifically prove the existence of God as a consequence of what he calls the Omega Point Theory. In 2007, he published a sequel to The Physics of Immortality called The Physics of Christianity , which applies the principles of the Omega Point Theory to the Christian religion. In this 2007 book, he asserts in the first chapter that the Second Coming of Christ will occur within 50 years, i.e., by 2057, and will be coincident with what futurist Ray Kurzweil calls the Singularity (which Kurzweil himself predicts will occur by 2045). ^[51]

Republicans? Democrats?
China? Ourselves?
Maybe a group of people who have been pointed to and blamed since the beginning of time?

Anti-Semitism and the Coronavirus

April 28, 2020

Anti-Semitic brainwashing throughout history has brought a large public to believe in the responsibility of Jews for plagues.

Brig.-Gen. \(res.\) Yossi Kuperwasser

Hatred toward the Jews

- Genesis 3:15
- Revelation 12:13-17
- Other persecutions of Jews
 - Egypt - Exodus
 - Greeks under Hellenization - persecuted/killed those who wouldn't go along with the new world order, the new way of doing things
 - Romans - persecuted Jews and Christians - killed, tortured, feed them to the beasts, burned them as torches - won't bow the knee to Caesar
 - Catholic church started persecution of the Jews and Christians that wouldn't go along with their agenda
 - Crusades (sent out by popes and Catholic church to reclaim the Holy Lands
 - killed Christians and Jews along the way - sacked their cities and towns, killed men, women, and children, burned the cities
 - Black Death 1347-1351 - killed about 200,000,000 people in Eurasia and North Africa - Jews were blamed for poisoning the water wells - rounded them up and killed them - 900 at one time were driven into a city and the city burned
 - Muslims/Arabs - Jews are their enemies - the infidels - Koran states they need to kill the infidels from 700-800 AD to today
 - What the Qur'an Teaches Us:
 - The Qur'an tells us: "not to make friendship with Jews and Christians" (5:51), "kill the disbelievers wherever we find them" (2:191), "murder them and treat them harshly" (9:123), "fight and slay the Pagans, seize them, beleaguer them, and lie in wait for them in every stratagem"
 - Allah and his messenger want us to fight the Christians and the Jews "until they pay the Jizya [a penalty tax for the non-Muslims living under Islamic rules] with willing submission, and feel themselves subdued" (9:29).
 - Allah and his messenger announce that it is acceptable to go back on our promises (treaties) and obligations with Pagans and make war on them whenever we find ourselves strong enough to do so (9:3). Our God tells us to "fight the unbelievers" and "He will punish them by our hands, cover them with shame and help us (to victory) over them" (9:14).
 - The Qur'an takes away the freedom of belief from all humanity and relegates those who disbelieve in Islam to hell (5:10), calls them najis (filthy, untouchable, impure) (9:28), and orders its followers to fight the unbelievers until no other religion except Islam is left (2:193).
 - It says that the "non-believers will go to hell and will drink boiling water" (14:17). It asks the Muslims to "slay or crucify or cut the hands and feet of the unbelievers, that they be expelled from the land with disgrace and that they shall have a great punishment in world hereafter” (5:34). And tells us that “for them (the unbelievers) garments of fire shall be cut and there shall be poured over their heads boiling water whereby whatever is in their bowels and skin shall be dissolved and they will be punished with hooked iron rods” (22:19-22) and that they not only will have “disgrace in this life, but on the Day of Judgment He shall make them taste the Penalty of burning (Fire)” (22:9).

- The Qur’an says that “those who invoke a god other than Allah not only should meet punishment in this world but the Penalty on the Day of Judgment will be doubled to them, and they will dwell therein in ignominy” (25:68).
- For those who “believe not in Allah and His Messenger, He has prepared, for those who reject Allah, a Blazing Fire!” (48:13). Although we are asked to be compassionate amongst each other, we have to be “harsh with unbelievers”, our Christian, Jewish and Atheist neighbours and colleagues (48:29). As for him who does not believe in Islam, the Prophet announces with a “stern command”: “Seize ye him, and bind ye him, And burn ye him in the Blazing Fire. Further, make him march in a chain, whereof the length is seventy cubits! This was he that would not believe in Allah Most High. And would not encourage the feeding of the indigent! So no friend hath he here this Day. Nor hath he any food except the corruption from the washing of wounds, Which none do eat but those in sin.” (69:30-37)
- The Qur’an prohibits a Muslim from befriending a non-believer even if that non-believer is the father or the brother of that Muslim (9:23), (3:28). Our holy book asks us to be disobedient towards the disbelievers and their governments and strive against the unbelievers with great endeavour” (25:52) and be stern with them because they belong to Hell (66:9).
- The holy Prophet prescribes fighting for us and tells us that “it is good for us even if we dislike it” (2:216). Then he advises us to “strike off the heads of the disbelievers”; and after making a “wide slaughter among them, carefully tie up the remaining captives” (47:4). Our God has promised to “instill terror into the hearts of the unbelievers” and has ordered us to “smite above their necks and smite all their finger-tips off them” (8:12).
- He also assures us that when we kill in his name “it is not us who slay them but Allah, in order that He might test the Believers by a gracious trial from Himself” (8:17). He orders us “to strike terror into the hearts of the enemies” (8:60). He has made the Jihad mandatory and warns us that “Unless we go forth, (for Jihad) He will punish us with a grievous penalty, and put others in our place” (9:39). Allah speaks to our Holy Prophet and says “O Prophet! strive hard against the unbelievers and the hypocrites, and be stern against them. Their abode is Hell – an evil refuge indeed” (9:73).

- He promises us that in the fight for His cause whether we slay or are slain we return to the garden of Paradise (9:111). In Paradise he will “wed us with Houris (celestial virgins) pure beautiful ones” (56:54), and unite us with large-eyed beautiful ones while we recline on our thrones set in lines (56:20).
- There we are promised to eat and drink pleasantly for what we did (56:19). He also promises “boys like hidden pearls” (56:24) and “youth never altering in age like scattered pearls” (for those who have paedophilic inclinations) (76:19). As you see, Allah has promised all sorts of rewards, gluttony and unlimited sex to Muslim men who kill unbelievers in his name. We will be admitted to Paradise where we shall find “goodly things, beautiful ones, pure ones confined to the pavilions that man has not touched them before nor jinni” (56:67-71).
- As for women, the book of Allah says that they are inferior to men and their husbands have the right to scourge them if they are found disobedient (4:34). It advises to “take a green branch and beat your wife”, because a green branch is more flexible and hurts more. (38:44). It teaches that women will go to hell if they are disobedient to their husbands (66:10). It maintains that men have an advantage over the women (2:228).
- It not only denies the women’s equal right to their inheritance (4:11-12), it also regards them as imbeciles and decrees that their witness is not admissible in the courts of law (2:282). This means that a woman who is raped cannot accuse her rapist unless she can produce a male witness.
- Our Holy Prophet allows us to marry up to four wives and he licensed us to sleep with our slave maids and as many ‘captive’ women as we may have (4:3) even if those women are already married. He himself did just that. This is why anytime a Muslim army subdues another nation, they call them kafir and allow themselves to rape their women. Pakistani soldiers allegedly raped up to 250,000 Bengali women in 1971 after they massacred 3,000,000 unarmed civilians when their religious leader decreed that Bangladeshis are un-Islamic. This is why the prison guards in Islamic regime of Iran rape the women that in their opinion are apostates prior to killing them, as they believe a virgin will not go to Hell.
- Nazi Germany under Hitler - 6 million
- Russia
- Apartheid in South Africa - ethnic cleansing on grounds of race, religion, etc

- Ignorance and fear are driving our world right now.
- Some “Christians” try to explain it away as prophecy
- Is that truth or just bizarre?
- As ambassadors for Christ we need to be a voice of peace, reason, and hope with a Biblical perspective that will point people to Christ not drive them away

Let's start by looking at prophecy and then see if this fits in with prophecy

- took us 3 years to study Daniel, II Thessalonians, and Revelation in depth.
- Don't have time or ability to cover it in detail now - let me know if you want to check it out for yourself and I will point you in the right direction.

Prophecy

It is touched on in many books but there are 6 major passages or books

Revelation - the whole book

II Thes 2

Luke 16, 21

Matt 24, 25

Daniel 7, 9, 11

Ez 36, 37

Our primary focus tonight will be on the timing of the book of Revelation

Revelation - single - not plural

Rev 1:19

- Write the things
 - which you have seen
 - Which are
 - Which will take place after these things
- This is the layout of the book

In chapter 1 - John saw a vision of Jesus 1:12-20

In chapter 2 & 3 - are letters to the churches those that were - present tense - at the time of the writing

Chapter 4-22 - starts with an interesting couple of words

- After these things
- So it begs the question - what things?

- It would seem from our studies over the years, that after these things would be a point in time after John's encounter with Jesus
- After the time of the churches
- Then these events start happening

Key Phrase in Revelation - after these things or after this

- used in 1:19; 4:1; 7:1, 9: 9:12; 11:11; 15:5; 18:1; 19:1; 20:3
- it shows a timeline or a specific progression of events
- If I asked you to count - how do you count?
- Common sense shows orderly progression

This is terminology that John will use in his writing - easy enough that a child could understand

LET'S Quickly Skim through Revelation and see how it is laid out with a progression of events

REVELATION OVERVIEW

- John on Patmos (1)
- Jesus appears to give him a revelation
- Addresses the churches (2, 3)
- After these things John called to heaven and praise around throne of God (4)
