

Proverbs

Introduction

What They Are	Divisions	Themes
What they are not - not promises or guaranteed outcomes - express general truth BUT there can be exceptions due to unpredictable behavior of fallen man - “mashal” = comparisons, similar, parallel - Figure of speech using comparisons to present observations or instructions - Timeless truths in the form of simple illustrations that expose a fundamental reality of life - Practical, easy to memorize, applicable to real life situation - Divine guidelines and wise observations - By studying them and applying them we contemplate the mind of God - His character, attributes, works, and blessings - Short instructions for living an effective life on earth - All the treasures of wisdom and knowledge expressed in the Proverbs, they are hidden in the life of Christ (Col 2:3)	Purpose - 1:1-7 Proverbs to Youth - 1:8-9:18 Proverbs of Solomon - 10:1-24:32 Proverbs of Solomon (Hezekiah’s men transcribed) - 25:1-29:27 Words of Agur - 30:1-33 Lemuel (Solomon) - wisdom for leaders (31:1-9) - Virtuous wife (31:10-31)	Fear of the Lord (1:7; 9:10) - viewing God with the respect that He deserves - Living our lives in light of what we know about Him - Holding Him in the highest estimation - Depending on Him with humble trust 2 kinds of fear - that God will hurt me - selfish - I will hurt Him - founded in love producing holiness of character and righteousness of conduct (Ez 6:9-10) Wisdom versus folly - wisdom - knowledge, understanding (applying the knowledge), instruction, discretion, obedience all built on the fear of the Lord - Folly = all the opposite of wisdom
